

'VIKSHIT BHARAT 2047',

The Department of Law Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be university) (off Campus) New Delhi has organized an event under the flagship of the Director, Hon'ble Prof. Dr. Yamini Agarwal, 'VIKSHIT BHARAT 2047', which embarked on a journey towards a developed India by the year 2047, marking 100 years of our independence. Its purpose was to emphasize and provide critical insight to students & other audiences into India's economic progress, social development, environmental sustainability, and other factors required for a developed nation. Prof. Dr. Yamini Agarwal opened the ceremony by welcoming the honorable guests. Dr. Reena Gupta, Head of the Law Department, also provided some wise remarks during the icebreaking session. The programme was graced by Dr. V.K. Singh, a Senior Bureaucrat and academician with 35 years of expertise in several subjects of law. He discussed in his remarks various factors relating to economic growth and criticized how an individual is controlling the whole economic status of India. The other guest speaker was Dr. Anuj Kumar Baksha, a professor with a profound dedication to advancing knowledge & innovation, at the University of Delhi. He outlined the achievements of India in literacy, health, agricultural production, infrastructure development, and required political strategies that will help in the development of the country. He also discussed the challenges before the Country. Followed by another Speaker Ms. Shweta Bharati who is a legal professional with over 22 years of enriched experience, and is the Managing Partner at Hammurabi & Solomon Partners. She highlighted the effect of gender neutrality and defined the terms Sovereign, Socialist, and Republic. All guests were honoured with tokens of gratitude. Overall, the event highlighted key pillars for India's progress and featured valuable perspectives from experts across various fields which were very helpful to know both sides the students & audiences. The faculty- Ms. Neha offered a vote of thanks, Dr. Reena Gupta & Ms. Neha Garg Coordinated the Event