

Faculty description – Snehal Phalke

Name: Ar. Snehal Phalke

Qualification: B. Arch, M. Arch. (Environmental Architecture)

Designation: Assistant Professor

Department: B.Arch.

Involvement: Core Faculty

Areas of expertise: Environmental Architecture, Green Rating Systems, Building construction and technology, Climate responsive design, specification writing.

Teaching profile (subjects): Environmental Architecture, Basic Design, Architectural Graphics, Building Construction and Technology, Specification Writing, Research in Architecture.

Email: snehal.phalke@bharativedyapeeth.edu , sap@bvcoa.in Brief Biography: Completed Graduation in Architecture and post-graduation in Environmental Architecture from MKSSS's Dr. B.N. College of Architecture, Savitribai Phule Pune University. Her core areas of interest are- Building Performance Simulation and Modelling, Thermal Comfort, Post occupancy environmental evaluation studies and Urban Climate. She is open to collaboration and active participation in research activities related to core areas of work and interest. She has handled many responsibilities for the institute as Class Coordinator, Competition head, Academic coordinator, Student support and progression, NAAC. She has organised various architectural seminars, webinars, and workshops for students. working with various green certification organisations like IGBC, GRIHA and LEED.

Key Competencies: Teaching, Communication, Decision and Organizational Skills

Professional profile: Green Building Professional, she has handled various residential, commercial, and industrial projects.

Academic Profile: 7 years core teaching experience

Hobbies: Travelling, Dance, sketching