

On March 22, 2024, The Department of Law Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be university) (off Campus) New Delhi hosted a session organized by its Law Placement Cell, featuring Dr. Archana Sinha, a former judge, as the guest speaker. The session aimed to enlighten students about cracking the Judicial Services Examination and the significance of a judiciary career. Dr. Archana Sinha commenced the session by highlighting the significance of the judiciary and the challenges associated with pursuing a career in this field:

She reassured students that becoming a judge through the Judicial Services Examination is achievable with dedication and perseverance. Furthermore, she underscored the pivotal role judges play in shaping society and emphasized the importance of diligence and integrity in judicial conduct, imparting invaluable wisdom to the aspiring legal minds in attendance.

The Law Placement Cell expressed gratitude to Dr. Archana Sinha for her enlightening discourse by presenting her with a gesture of appreciation. This gesture acknowledged her invaluable contribution to the students' understanding of the legal profession, recognizing the significance of her insights and expertise shared during the session.

