Deemed to be University

I have been a student at this college for 3 years and it was quite an experience the Professors here were really supportive, the university being deemed to be made learning really easy by creating a very interesting and comparatively easy syllabus for students.

I chose B.Sc. in Botany for my Graduation here, and the Department of Botany Professors along with students is like a small knitted family, just like a family cares for all of its members, Dr. S.G. Pawar is like a head of that family, he along with all the professors in the department are really supportive and understanding, when I first started to attend the college here I wasn't clear what I will do with my future but they guided me with all their experience and filled me with confidence. These are really important values for every institution to have and I'm glad I got be a part of this family

I Akshada Jadhav, would like to express my sincere gratitude to BVDU's Yashwantrao Mohite college of Arts, Science and Commerce.

I had completed my graduation in Botany in the year 2005. In five years of journey I had learnt many things.

I am very satisfied with great infrastructure, well advanced laboratories and course curriculum of the department of Botany.

Botany Department completed many research projects. Experienced and highly qualified faculties are always willing to help the students. They always motivate and encourage to enthusiastic talented students to do a research work.

Various advanced techniques workshops, seminars conducted by department helps student to enhance their knowledge and develop environmental awareness among them.

The study tour ,field work and projects like Mushroom cultivation Tissue culture, Vermicompost, Greenhouse, Polyhouse.....etc encourages students for new venture startup.

I am happy and grateful as a alumna of Botany department.

Thank you
