POLICY

Bharati Vidyapeeth:

Bharati Vidyapeeth, the parent body of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune was established in 1964, by distinguished educationist Dr. Patangraoji Kadam, with a mission of promoting "Social Transformation Through Dynamic Education'. The institution aims to provide enhanced learning opportunities and bring about intellectual awakening of people through the spread of education that would have a positive impact on the world. Since its establishment, it has maintained the highest standards and has proliferated inventive practices in the education sector.

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University):

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) is one of the largest multi- faculty, multi-campus Deemed to be Universities in the country which has created a very laudable track record of academic achievements since its inception.

In 1996, 12 institutions of Bharati Vidyapeeth were accorded Deemed To Be University status in 1996 for academic excellence by the University Grants Commission (vide its notification no. F.9-15/95-U.3 on 26th April 1996 under section 3 of UGC Act 1956). Presently, the university is having 29 constituent colleges, along with schools, off campus departments and centers under 12 different disciplines including Modern Medicine, Dentistry, Ayurved, Homoeopathy, Nursing, Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering, Pharmacy, Management, Social Sciences, Law, Environment Science, Architecture, Hotel Management Tourism and Catering Technology, Physical Education, Computer Science, Library Science and Information Technology etc. spanning over campuses in Pune, Navi Mumbai, Kolhapur, Solapur, Sangli, Karad and New Delhi, thus catering to the students from rural as well as urban and metro cities.

The University was accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with the prestigious 'A' grade in 2004 and reaccredited with 'A' grade in 2011 (second cycle). Under third cycle of assessment, the university is accredited with 'A+' grade by the NAAC in 2017. The University has been graded as Category-I Deemed to be University by UGC under its Graded autonomy regulations. The University is a Member of Association of Indian Universities and also a Member of Association of Commonwealth Universities. It has been consecutively ranked within the Top 100 universities in India by National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India since the beginning of NIRF.

The University puts a premium on research. It is probably the only Deemed to be University in the country having three self-financing research institutes as its constituent units viz. (i) Interactive Research School for Health Affairs (IRSHA), (ii) Research and Development Centre in Pharmaceutical Sciences & Applied Chemistry, Pune. and (iii) Yashwantrao Chavan Institute of Social Sciences Studies & Research, Pune, which are involved in advanced research in Bio Medical Sciences, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Social Sciences.

The university boasts of world-class infrastructure and facilities, significant achievements in research, several innovative academic programs, best teaching-learning processes and national, as well as, international collaborations. Over the years, the Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) BVDU, has attained academic excellence and offers programmes in innovative and emerging areas, through its constituent colleges, schools and departments including three research institutes dedicated exclusively to research.

Code of Conduct:

This policy document is to bring about clarity of role and responsibility among the staff and students of the university.

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) Pune

Code of Conduct

Students

I. Jurisdiction and applicability

- The Student Code of Conduct applies to any student enrolled in a Programme/course at the University, and including co-op and exchange students.
- The Code applies to conduct that occurs on or near the premises of the Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed to be University. It also applies to conduct that occurs elsewhere if it is related to University sponsored programs or activities, (such as travelling, visits, sports teams, quiz teams, cultural meet teams etc.) or if it occurs in the context of a relationship between the student and a third party that involves the student's standing, status or academic record at the University.
- It does not apply to conduct that is assigned to another disciplinary body at the University, allegations regarding a student's failure to meet standards of professional conduct, or conduct committed by a student solely in his or her capacity.
- Students living in residence may also be subject to a separate residence policy for conduct that occurs in any buildings managed by Student Housing and Hospitality Services or the property surrounding these residences.
- Unless otherwise specified, the University Code of Conduct applies to all Doctor of philosophy (Ph.D.) candidates, Master candidates, and Bachelor candidates, diploma candidates.

II. Misconduct and prohibited conduct

a. Academic Misconduct

- Plagiarism: A student must not intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly include in work offered to fulfill any college requirement the language, work, or ideas of another without proper attribution. Plagiarism includes (a) the misappropriation of language taken verbatim, or nearly verbatim, from other sources without crediting the author of the original work by use of both quotation marks and footnotes or other appropriate forms of attribution, (b) the misappropriation of the original ideas of another without appropriate attribution, and (c) the misappropriation of the original pattern of ideas or organization of one or more original works over a substantial portion of the paper. This third type of plagiarism occurs when a student follows the work of others, idea for idea, over a substantial portion of the paper, while paraphrasing the language of the original work, without indicating that the pattern of thought or structure of the paper comes from the original source.

- Use of work completed by another: A student must not submit the work of another in fulfillment of any college requirement. This includes work completed by another student or any other person.
- Multiple submission of work: A student must not submit work in fulfillment of any college requirement that the student has submitted in compliance with the requisites for any other course or program at this or any other academic institution without the express consent of the present professor. This provision will also apply to work submitted for credit at the college that was previously completed in satisfaction of non-academic work requirements outside the college/school/department.
- Unauthorized collaboration: A student must not submit work produced in collaboration with another agency/ institute without the permission of the teaching faculty. This includes collaboration with respect to the substantive content of the work, as well as the writing style, grammar, proofreading, or cite form.
- This provision will not apply if the teaching faculty has expressly permitted discussion, collaboration, or assistance in the matter.
- Third parties: A student must not assist another student in violating the regulations set forth in any part of this section, nor may any student attempt to enlist the assistance of a third party with the purpose of violating any of the foregoing provisions.
