POLICY FOR WOMEN SAFETY - (2020)

POLICY

Bharati Vidyapeeth:

Bharati Vidyapeeth, the parent body of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune was established in 1964, by distinguished educationist Dr. Patangraoji Kadam, with a mission of promoting "Social Transformation Through Dynamic Education'. The institution aims to provide enhanced learning opportunities and bring about intellectual awakening of people through the spread of education that would have a positive impact on the world. Since its establishment, it has maintained the highest standards and has proliferated inventive practices in the education sector.

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University):

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) is one of the largest multi- faculty, multi-campus Deemed to be Universities in the country which has created a very laudable track record of academic achievements since its inception.

In 1996, 12 institutions of Bharati Vidyapeeth were accorded Deemed To Be University status in 1996 for academic excellence by the University Grants Commission (vide its notification no. F.9-15/95-U.3 on 26th April 1996 under section 3 of UGC Act 1956). Presently, the university is having 29 constituent colleges, along with schools, off campus departments and centers under 12 different disciplines including Modern Medicine, Dentistry, Ayurved, Homoeopathy, Nursing, Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering, Pharmacy, Management, Social Sciences, Law, Environment Science, Architecture, Hotel Management Tourism and Catering Technology, Physical Education, Computer Science, Library Science and Information Technology etc. spanning over campuses in Pune, Navi Mumbai, Kolhapur, Solapur, Sangli, Karad and New Delhi, thus catering to the students from rural as well as urban and metro cities.

The University was accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with the prestigious 'A' grade in 2004 and reaccredited with 'A' grade in 2011 (second cycle). Under third cycle of assessment, the university is accredited with 'A+' grade by the NAAC in 2017. The University has been graded as Category-I Deemed to be University by UGC under its Graded autonomy regulations. The University is a Member of Association of Indian Universities and also a Member of Association of Commonwealth Universities. It has been consecutively ranked within the Top 100 universities in India by National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India since the beginning of NIRF.

The University puts a premium on research. It is probably the only Deemed to be University in the country having three self-financing research institutes as its constituent units viz. (i) Interactive Research School for Health Affairs (IRSHA), (ii) Research and Development Centre in Pharmaceutical Sciences & Applied Chemistry, Pune. and (iii) Yashwantrao Chavan Institute of Social Sciences Studies & Research, Pune, which are involved in advanced research in Bio Medical Sciences, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Social Sciences.

The university boasts of world-class infrastructure and facilities, significant achievements in research, several innovative academic programs, best teaching-learning processes and national, as well as, international collaborations. Over the years, the Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) BVDU, has attained academic excellence and offers programmes in innovative and emerging areas, through its constituent colleges, schools and departments including three research institutes dedicated exclusively to research.

Policy for Women Safety

Policy on Women's Health, Empowerment, Respect & Safety (HERS POLICY)

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune, India is committed to gender equity, nondiscrimination and women empowerment. The University is conscious of the National Policy for Women Empowerment.

We, are committed towards the inclusion of women's talents, skills, experience and energies across all sectors and levels of economic activity. As we strongly believe that we have a duty of care towards our women employees and in the wake of increasing incidents of violence and atrocities against women, the University felt the need to formulate a policy on women safety, travel guidelines to be adhered to equally by the University and by the women employees (collectively titled the "Policy"). As always, we are committed to giving every woman employee a just and fair hearing on issues raised with respect to their safety.

This Policy applies to all employees and students in various departments, sections and constituent units of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune, India.

In tune with the national policy, the university strives towards the following

- Equal access to education for women.
- Eliminate discrimination, increase enrolment and retention rates of women
- Improve the quality of education for women to facilitate life-long learning as well as development of occupation/vocation/technical skills by women.
- Developing gender sensitive curricula to address sex stereotyping as one of the causes of gender discrimination.

Strategic Objectives

The University aims to maintain its positive gender balance in its student community and teacher community.

- Women students' representation to be maintained above 60% in both undergraduate and postgraduate levels of programs
- Women teachers' representation to be maintained above the national average of 42%.
PROPOSED

Proposed Action Plan

- Continue the women-friendly practices of the University
- Sensitization of students and staff about the National and University policies regarding gender equity, non-discrimination and prevention of harassment.
- Highlighting presence of women and achievements in admission campaigns and promotional activities.

- Implied or explicit threat about the present or future employment status;
- Interference with the person's work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment; or
- Humiliating treatment likely to affect the person's health or safety.

The point of consideration should be the effect that the conduct of one person has on another rather than whether the behaviour was intentionally offensive or not. Further, not only face to face harassment but Sexual Harassment by electronic means, such as using social media, as well shall constitute Sexual Harassment. Sexual Harassment does not have to be repeated or continuous to be against this Policy.

“Sexual Harassment” may occur not only where a person uses sexual behaviour to control, influence or affect the career, salary or job of another person, but also between co-workers. It may also occur between a University Employee and someone that Employee deals within the course of his/her work who is not employed by the University.

Third Party Harassment

As per the Act, if Third Party Harassment occurs as a result of an act or omission by any third party or outsider, the University and person-in-charge will take necessary and reasonable steps, as per law, to assist the Aggrieved Individual in terms of support and preventive action including assisting an Employee/guest who wishes to file a complaint with the local police.

This case is particularly relevant in our industry where our Employees are constantly in touch with third parties through their interaction with guests and clients and working at various client locations. Our Employees must be assured that the University will support them in preventing or prosecuting any such case of misconduct.

Workplace or University Campus

- Any department, organization, undertaking, establishment, enterprise, institution, office, branch or unit which is established, owned, controlled by the University and/or where the regular activities of the University is conducted.
- All University related activities performed at any other site away from the premises of the University.
- Places visited by the Employee arising out of or during employment including transportation provided by the University for undertaking such journey.
- Any mis-behaviour in the nature of Sexual Harassment on any social networking website shall also be considered Sexual Harassment at Workplace irrespective of whether such sexual behaviour was shown during or outside of office hour.

Sexual Harassment Redressal System

The Act has stipulated that all companies setup an Internal Complaints Committee (“POSH Committee”) at each administrative units or office of the said University, to redress Complaints on Sexual Harassment The committee is responsible for:

- Receiving Complaints of Sexual Harassment at the various Campuses.
- Initiating and conducting inquiry as per the established procedure.
- Submitting findings and recommendations of inquiries.
- Coordinating with the employer in implementing appropriate action.

- Maintaining strict confidentiality throughout the process as per established guidelines.
- Submitting annual reports in the prescribed format to the University

Redressal Procedures

A Complainant can make a Complaint, in writing, to the POSH Committee, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of last incident. The POSH Committee may, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit of 3 (three) months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the Complainant from filing a Complaint within the said period.

The Complaint may be submitted to the POSH Committee electronically at bvuniversity@bharativedyapeeth.edu or may be submitted personally, to any POSH Committee member.

Conciliation

Prior to initiating an inquiry, the POSH Committee may, at the request of the Complainant, take steps to settle the matter between the Complainant and the Respondent through conciliation, provided that no monetary settlement is made the basis of such conciliation. In case a settlement has been arrived at, the POSH Committee shall record the settlement so arrived and forward the same to the University to act as specified in the recommendation of the POSH Committee. The POSH Committee will provide copies of the settlement as recorded to the Complainant and the Respondent. Upon a conciliation being reached, the POSH Committee would not be required to conduct any further inquiry.

Inquiry

- The POSH Committee will conduct a prompt, thorough and objective investigation of all complaints received. Once a Complaint is received from an Aggrieved Individual, the POSH Committee will setup a meeting with the Aggrieved Individual to obtain more details about the Complaint. It will conduct further investigation to corroborate the facts. This investigation will include interviewing the relevant persons including the Respondent and potential witnesses. The principle of natural justice will be adopted during investigation. Thus, both parties, the Complainant as well as the Respondent, will be given a platform to produce their respective views of the event/s and will be given an opportunity to explain their sides. The investigation shall be completed by POSH Committee within a period of 90 (ninety) days.
- The conclusions of the POSH Committee will then be informed to the parties in writing following the investigation. The POSH Committee will recommend action to be carried out by the HR Department of the University

Action during Pendency of Inquiry

During the pendency of an inquiry, on a written request made by the Complainant, the POSH Committee may recommend the following actions to be taken:

- Transfer the Aggrieved Individual or the Respondent to any other Workplace;
- Grant leave to the Aggrieved Individual up to a period of 3 (three) months;

- Grant such other relief to the Aggrieved Individual as may be prescribed under applicable law; and/ or
- Restrain the Respondent from reporting on the work performance of the Aggrieved Individual or writing his/her confidential report and assign the same to another officer.

Disciplinary Action

On the completion of an inquiry, the POSH Committee shall provide a written report of its findings to the University within a period of 10 (ten) days from the date of completion of the inquiry and such report be made available to the concerned parties. If the POSH Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the University that no action is required to be taken in the matter. If the POSH Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has been proved, possible disciplinary action will be taken against the Respondent indirect proportion to the seriousness of the offence. It could range from:

- Written apology, warning, reprimand or censure.
- Withholding of promotion.
- Withholding of pay rise or increments.
- Termination of the Respondent from service
- Immediate transfer, suspension or termination without pay for a Complaint of harassment that is written or if more than one Complaint is lodged against a single person for a minor offence.
- Deduction from the salary or wages of the Respondent such sum as it may consider appropriate to be paid to the Aggrieved Individual or to his/her legal heirs. In case the University is unable to make deductions from the salary of the Respondent due to his being absent from duty or cessation of employment, it may direct the Respondent to pay such sum to the Complainant. In case the Respondent fails to pay the sum referred above, the POSH Committee may forward the order for recovery of the sum as an arrear of land revenue to the concerned district officer.

The University shall act upon the recommendation given by the POSH Committee within 60 (sixty) days of receipt of the recommendation.

Non-Retaliation

For the purposes of this Policy, “Retaliation” means and includes any hurtful employment action against any individual/s. The University will not accept, support or tolerate Retaliation in any form against any Employee who, acting in good faith, reports suspected misconduct, asks questions or raises concerns. Any person who engages in such Retaliation directly or indirectly, or encourages others to do so, may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Malicious Complaint

In the case where a false Complaint has been filed and the investigation has proved that the motivation of the Complaint was purely to defame the Respondent, disciplinary action must be initiated against the Complainant in the same way as stated in serial number 9 above. Mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not make the Complaint malicious nor should it attract action against the Complainant. The malicious intent on part of the Complainant needs to be established through the inquiry process before any action against such Complainant is recommended by the POSH Committee to the University.

Procedure for filing an Appeal

If any person is aggrieved from the recommendations made by the POSH Committee or non-implementation of such recommendations, he/she may appeal to the appropriate authority, as specified by law, within period of 90(ninety) days of the recommendations.

Confidentiality

The strictest confidentiality will be observed in respect of any Complaint and all related matters under this Policy, with information provided or generated being restricted to the smallest possible group. It must be sure that the processes be brief and quick. Any attempt by the members of the POSH Committee or the witnesses or any other persons involved in the inquiry to discuss or disclose this information to anyone except those directly involved with the Complaint will be treated with disciplinary action.

Internal Complaints Committee (Prevention of Sexual Harassment - POSH COMMITTEE):

- Presiding Officer not below the rank of Professor or Associate Professor
- 2 Faculty Members & 2 Non-Teaching Staff Members (Preferably Women)
- 3 Students (If the Matter involves Students)
- 1 Member from NGO (committed to the cause of Women)
- At Least one half of the total members of ICC shall be women
- Persons in highest positions such as VC, Pro- VC, Registrar, Rectors, Deans, Heads of various departments etc SHALL NOT be the members of ICC
- Term of Membership of ICC shall be 3 years or a system in which one third of members get change
