“Partition Horrors Remembrance Day (14th August)”

On 15th August 2021, the Honourable Prime Minister declared that 14th August would be observed as 'Partition Horrors Remembrance Day.'

At Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), College of Engineering, Pune, we organized a short play on 14th August 2024 to observe this solemn occasion. The event's chief guest was Colonel Parag Modak (Veteran). All faculty and staff members from various departments were invited and attended the program.

The event was organized by the Department of Civil Engineering under the guidance of Dr. V. S. Sohoni Principal BVDUCOEP and Dr. R. H. Jadhav, Head of the Department, with support from Civil Department staff members Jyoti Sadamate, Priya Hirave, Sudarshan Talegaonkar, Santosh Thorat, and Sujit Tarte. The program began with an introduction of the chief guest, followed by a felicitation by Dr. V. S. Sohoni, who also addressed the audience on the significance of the day. Colonel Modak shared his reflections on the partition, highlighting the agony, suffering, and pain endured by those who were displaced, along with some personal life experiences.

To further convey the sufferings of those affected by the partition, a video presentation of a street play in Hindi was shown to the audience. The program concluded with the National Anthem.
