Date: 22nd August 2024

INTRODUCTION

On August 22, 2024, the department of CSBS had organized a poster making competition themed Water Conservation: A Collective Responsibility to spread awareness about water conservation. The intention was to educate and motivate participants to take action to save this important resource. The program included a thorough explanation on the importance of water conservation, how it affects our daily living, and doable tactics to encourage sustainable water use.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE EXHIBITION

Many students from the department of CSBS wholeheartedly participating in the event. Their creative posters highlight the theme of water conservation were displayed on the department floor. Vipul Kumar from CSBS semester 3 was awarded as the winner of the competition. He was felicitated by Dr. Bindu Garg- HOD CSBS. Below are the few glimpses of the event.
