Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) School Of Distance Education runs its programmes which are equivalent to its conventional mode programmes. To bridge the gap between conventional and SDE campus students the conventional and distance mode syllabus and examination question papers are same. By providing and maintaing equivalent scope to SDE students, BVDU SDE gives scope to distributed learning, by giving due consideration to the fact that SDE students have variation in time in comparison to their peers and are also separated from their instructors and peers due to job demands and other commitments. Keeping in touch with the Global Education Requirements BVDU SDE has implemented Choice Based Education System (CBCS) which also provides Academic flexibility to its students. To ensure and improve the overall quality of its distance learning, BVDU SDE includes Stakeholders, Board of Studies members and the Industry Experts in Syllabus Formation as well as FDP's, Orientation Programme and Academic meetings. To facilitate the Teaching Learning Process the Self Learning Material is developed in print form also, the student can contact the in house faculty to clarify their queries.
