Subject: Rules of A.T.K.T. for CBCS Programmes.

Sir / Madam,

The Deans meeting was held on 20th July 2022, wherein the rules of A.T.K.T. for the programmes under Choice Based Credit System was taken up for discussion. The following has been resolved by the committee for implementation as revised rules of A.T.K.T., for programmes under Choice Based Credit System (CBCS):

- i) For courses upto four semesters, a student is allowed to carry any number backlogs of a prescribed course in Sem I, II, III to Sem IV provided he appears and have backlogs.
- ii) For the courses more than four semesters, a student be allowed to carry any number of backlogs of a prescribed course in Sem I, II, III to Sem IV, but admission to Sem-V, Sem-VII, Sem-IX may be given after successful completion of Sem I and II (i.e. first year), Sem III and IV (i.e. second year) and Sem V and VI (i.e. third year) respectively.

A student can appear for any four continuous semesters in an examination season including the regular semester, provided the student has appeared and have backlogs for other three semesters. In the event of any two exam are scheduled simultaneously, the student has to decide his choice of appearance.

It has been instructed by the university authorities, that the revised rules shall be implemented after declaration of Summer 2022 examination results.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

Controller of Examinations I/C
